

ATTENTION PILOTS:

Minneapolis will be hosting the 2018 Super Bowl on February 4th. There will be a vast influx of General Aviation traffic due to the event beginning the Wednesday before through Monday. Please be sure to check NOTAMs if you plan to fly within 150 miles of Minneapolis.

ALSO: There will be a non-standard Temporary Flight Restriction on Sunday evening. It will be imperative that you understand the flight restrictions that will be in place.
